This Week's Events

November 10-12 Porschepalooza The Ozark Region is hosting this event for the second year in Eureka Springs. Last year we had about 100 folks attend and about 60 Porsches. This year we have already registered over 100 Porsches and close to 200 folks. You can still register, go on line to www.PCA-palooza.com This event offers tech sessions, autocross (on Sunday), scenic drives through the Ozark Mountains, door prizes, Friday night mixer with Crisis (Crisis band leader is our own club member Gregg Herning) and a banquet on Saturday night. On display will be 2007 Porsches by Jackie Cooper Imports and a couple of RUF VIN vehicles.

For more information you can contact Rick Daes at (501) 565-5113 or rdaes@aristotle.net

December 2 (Saturday) Toys for Tots at Toy Hill We will meet at Ray Winder Field at 8:30 a.m. deliver our toys and go some place to eat.

2007 Officers- The ballots for voting for or nominating someone for an office should be arriving in your mail box this week.

Last Week's Events

Sylamore Fun Run- Saturday October 28, the club drove up to Sylamore to Jo Jo's Catfish and had lunch. On the return trip the group stop in at Lynda and Barry Sorrells (cabin) located on the Little Red River just North of Pangburn. The leaves were in the middle of their fall colors and the weather was made to order.
